

How to use our Zoom-based system

After the therapist schedules a meeting with you, you will receive an invitation with a link for you session via SMS or email.

This is what the message looks like on your phone:

And this is what it looks like when you receive the invitation by email:

All you need to do is click on the attached link. Zoom will open automatically and your remote therapy session with the therapist of your choice will begin.

Good luck!